

Hello Lighthouse: A Poetic Journey to the Edge of the World

Hello Lighthouse is a beautifully illustrated picture book that tells the story of a family of lighthouse keepers who live on a remote island. The father tends to the lighthouse, while the mother and daughter care for the home and garden. Together, they face the challenges of living in such an isolated place, but they also find joy in the beauty of their surroundings and the love they share for each other.

The book is written in a lyrical and poetic style, and the illustrations are both stunning and evocative. Blackall's use of light and shadow creates a sense of atmosphere and mood, and her characters are both believable and relatable. The result is a book that is both beautiful and meaningful, and that will stay with readers long after they finish reading it.
