This comprehensive guidebook will help you plan your next outdoor adventure in Ontario. We've included information on the best hiking trails, camping spots, and fishing locations in the province, as well as tips on how to prepare for your trip and stay safe while you're out in the wilderness.

Hiking

Ontario is home to some of the best hiking trails in Canada. Whether you're looking for a short day hike or a multi-day backpacking trip, there's a trail for you.

Here are a few of our favorite hiking trails in Ontario:

- The Bruce Trail: This iconic trail stretches over 900 kilometers along the Niagara Escarpment. It's a challenging hike, but it offers stunning views of the escarpment and the surrounding countryside.
- The Algonquin Highlands Backpacking Trail: This 55-kilometer trail winds through the beautiful Algonquin Highlands. It's a great trail for backpackers who want to experience the wilderness without having to travel too far from civilization.
- The La Cloche Silhouette Trail: This 78-kilometer trail is located in the La Cloche Mountains. It's a challenging hike, but it offers stunning views of the mountains and lakes.

Camping

Ontario is also home to some of the best camping spots in Canada. Whether you're looking for a quiet spot to pitch your tent or a campground with all the amenities, you'll find it in Ontario.

Here are a few of our favorite camping spots in Ontario:

- Algonquin Provincial Park: Algonquin is one of the most popular camping destinations in Ontario. It offers a variety of campsites, from rustic backcountry sites to fully serviced campgrounds.
- Killarney Provincial Park: Killarney is another popular camping destination, known for its stunning scenery and its many lakes and rivers.

- Quetico Provincial Park: Quetico is a vast wilderness park, perfect for canoeists and backpackers. There are over 2,000 campsites scattered throughout the park, from remote backcountry sites to more accessible frontcountry sites.

Fishing

Ontario is a great place to go fishing, with a wide variety of fish species to be found in its lakes and rivers. Whether you're looking to catch trout, bass, walleye, or pike, you'll find it in Ontario.

Here are a few of our favorite fishing spots in Ontario:

- Lake Simcoe: Lake Simcoe is known for its excellent bass fishing. It's also a good place to catch walleye, pike, and perch.
- Georgian Bay: Georgian Bay is a great place to catch trout. It's also home to a variety of other fish species, such as bass, walleye, and pike.
- Rainy Lake: Rainy Lake is a popular destination for walleye and pike fishing. It's also a good place to catch bass and perch.

Planning Your Trip

When planning your outdoor adventure in Ontario, it's important to do your research and be prepared. Here are a few tips to help you plan your trip:

- Choose the right activities: Ontario has a wide variety of outdoor activities to offer, so it's important to choose the ones that are right for you. If you're not sure what you want to do, check out the Ontario Parks website or the Ontario Tourism website for ideas.

- Do your research: Once you've chosen your activities, do your research to find the best places to go. Read online reviews, talk to other people who have been there, and check out the websites of the parks and attractions you're interested in.
- Be prepared: The weather in Ontario can be unpredictable, so it's important to be prepared for anything. Pack layers of clothing, including a raincoat and a hat. Also, be sure to bring plenty of water and snacks.
- Stay safe: When you're out in the wilderness, it's important to stay safe. Be aware of your surroundings and let someone know where you're going and when you expect to be back. Also, be sure to follow the rules and regulations of the park or attraction you're visiting.
