The police are baffled by the murder. There are no witnesses, no suspects, and no motive. But as Detective Inspector John Blake and his partner,

Detective Sergeant Sarah Byron, begin to investigate, they uncover a web of secrets and lies that lead them to the very heart of the city's criminal underworld.

Blake and Byron soon realize that Sarah Jones was not who she seemed. She was involved in a dangerous game, a game that ultimately cost her her life. As they dig deeper into the case, they discover that Sarah was not the only one who was playing this game. There are others involved, people who are willing to kill to protect their secrets.

Blake and Byron find themselves in a race against time to stop the killer before they strike again. But the killer is always one step ahead, and they are playing a deadly game of cat and mouse.
